What is Cura Personalis?

The first time I heard the term Cura Personalis was when I first stepped foot on St. Francis Xavier's campus 8 years ago. I didn't quite understand what it meant, but I could tell it was really important and permeated the culture of the school. Now that I have a fuller understanding, I think trying to describe Cura Personalis is similar to describing love. It was all hands on deck when the Business Management Class (6th - 8th grade students) held their restaurant event which was a culmination of everything they had been working on in class. From creating the menu to budgeting and purchasing the supplies to cooking the food to taking the orders and acting as restaurant staff it was a huge success. The students learned a lot about running a restaurant and everything that is involved. The students worked hard. One class had a Mexican menu and the other had a breakfast menu. These students could not have done this without the guidance of their teachers Mrs. Rich and Mrs. Musgrove.
