News from SFX!

I recently found myself getting frustrated when the term collaboration was misused/misunderstood and it got me thinking about how grateful I am for all the many ways true Ignatian collaboration is lived out at St. Francis Xavier School. Read more here!

What is Lent? Please watch this important video with your children. This Thursday, April 11th all SFX Kids for Others will bring their rice bowls to Pledge and Prayer. This video shows the impact this campaign has on many lives. Your gracious donations will go toward changing the lives of those less fortunate through Catholic Relief Services. We cannot wait to see how you have been giving back through your Lenten promises.

Please join us this Friday, April 12th for our Volunteer Appreciation Coffee. Come to the library right after Pledge and Prayer for a light breakfast as we say thank you to all of our amazing volunteers!

New Research on Math Anxiety

Researchers at Stanford University have been studying math achievement and how anxiety plays a part in student success in math. One interesting finding from a recent study showed that the amount of math anxiety expressed by parents predicted their child's math achievement in school.

Tech Q&A - Group Text Strands

Q: My son and his friends have a group chat going. Recently, my son took a picture of one of the boys and sent it to the group. The other boys responded with teasing. Is this normal adolescent behavior or should I step in?

Can you find Sister
Christa?

Sister Christa made a surprise visit to Pledge and Prayer to say goodbye to students, teachers and staff. Sister Christa has blessed our community for an amazing 3 years and has helped the students blossom and grow into strong, caring Kids for Others and leaders. We could not have asked for a softer shoulder to cry on, a more understanding counselor, or a more inspiring role model demonstrating our Jesuit life and faith. We could not be more grateful for this amazing woman who has done so much for our school and the community. We wish you all the best Sister Christa.
